Old Business:

1. There's been no response from the County regarding the Visitor and Tourism Grant.
2. Grand Marshal suggestions—Jean Wolfe was suggested as a possible grand marshal. Kristine Morris will contact her for a response.
3. Freddie Rodkey thanked everyone for the scholarship from RBA that was presented to his son Ben.

Summer's End Festival Committees:

- Advertising—Rita Betts reported the advertising packages had been sent out and have until the end of this week to respond. She currently has 3 platinum levels with a possible 4th, 3 gold levels, 2 silver levels, and 2 bronze levels.
- Booths/Rides—Freddie Rodkey reported there are still craft spaces still available. As it gets closer, things will start filling up. The food court is almost filled up. An inquiry had been received from a vendor offering helicopter rides at $20.00 per person. Freddie will need to meet with him for a good location to land and take off.
- Coupon Books—Nathan McCollum stated he will begin work on it in July.
- Car/Bike Show—No report
- Lil Miss/Mister—Bev Miller currently has 7 Lil' Misses and 3 Lil' Misters
- Cutest Baby—Bev Miller will be hanging posters this week.
- Entertainment—The Last Vinyl will play on Friday evening and Mason Creek will play on Saturday evening.
- Church Service—No report
- Hornet Hustle—No report
- Parade—The fireworks canisters have netted $264.44 to date. The fireworks contract with Phil Ramsey has been signed.
- Parking—Adrian Tedder discussed when assistance would be needed for parking on Friday evening and Saturday.
- Trash Pickup—Kristine Morris has made up a schedule and will begin contacting groups or churches for assistance.

There being no further business to come before the group, the meeting was adjourned to Tuesday, July 17, 2018 at 12:00 p.m. Kathy Ledman and The Farmers Bank will be providing the meal.

Respectfully submitted,
Freddie Rodkey, President
Pat McIlrath, Secretary
