

July 17, 2018

Meeting Time: 12:00 p.m.
Meeting Place: Milner Community Health Care Activity Center
Members Present: 14 members present
Lunch Provided By: Farmers Bank and Kathy Ledman

1. The meeting was called to order by Freddie Rodkey. Farmers Bank and Kathy Ledman were thanked for providing the meal. Steve Walter, Senior Vice President of Retail Banking with Farmers Bank, was also introduced. Minutes from the previous meeting were approved as presented.
2. Treasurer's Report:
Checking Acct.: $12,046.50
Savings Acct: $14,535.67
PayPal: $184.00

Old Business:

1. Pat McIlrath stated she had contacted the Clinton County Auditor regarding the Clinton County Visitor and Tourism Grant. The Auditor stated that the committee had not met yet; however, there has been $2,500.00 budgeted for the Summer's End Festival.
2. The Grand Marshal for the parade this year will be Jean Wolfe.

New Business:

1. The 29th Annual Senior Fair will be Wednesday, September 26, 2018 from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Community Life Center behind the First Church of the Nazarene in Frankfort. All seniors age 50 and up are invited.

Summer's End Festival Committees:

- Advertising—Rita Betts reported that $3,675.00 had been collected in sponsorships. Posters and mini schedules have been ordered. She will be ordering advertising signs from Eagle Printing.
- Booths/Rides—Freddie Rodkey reported the food court is almost full. There are still several craft/vendor booths still available, but expected those to be filled as the festival gets closer. Helo Rides will be providing helicopter rides for $20.00 per person.
- Coupon Books—Nathan McCollum stated he had begun work on the new coupon book. There are still 20 of the books not sold from last year that the coupons are still good through August 31, 2018. The price was reduced to $5.00.
- Car/Bike Show—Ann Hodson stated that flyers are being distributed and sponsorships are coming in.
- Lil Miss/Mister & Cutest Baby—No report
- Queen Pageant—Lisa Brown reported she definitely two contestants and possibly two more.
- Church Service—Rod Miller stated the Church of the Brethren has planning under way.
- Hornet Hustle—Posters have been distributed and they are getting sponsors. The link to sign up for the 5K is now open.
- Entertainment—The Last Vinyls will be Friday night and Mason Creek will be Saturday night.
- Fireworks—The canisters have taken in $393.57.
- Parking—Adrian Tedder said it is being handled.
- Trash Pickup—Kristine Morris has made a schedule to do 2 hour shifts.

- Jump Rope/Hula Hoop/Cake Walk—First Financial is still planning on doing this again this year. They are going to need donations of cakes or cupcakes. Please put in containers that are transportable.
- Radios—The school will need to know how many radios are needed.

There being no further business to come before the group, the meeting was adjourned to Tuesday, August 7, 2018 at 12:00 p.m. Rodkey/New Holland and Freddie Rodkey will be providing the meal.

Respectfully submitted,
Freddie Rodkey, President
Pat McIlrath, Secretary