Summer's End Festival Wrap-Up Report:

- Advertising—Rita Betts stated the new stage sign for sponsorships was well received. There were the smaller signs located throughout the park. It was mentioned it needs to be advertised there are to be no dogs or golf carts in the park during the festival. Golf carts had a designated parking area.
- Booths/Rides—Freddie Rodkey stated booth spots filled up after a late start. The carnival people had no complaints. They might bring more rides next year. It was requested by the Rossville Police to not allow the blow up toy person to come back due to spousal conflicts. It was also mentioned that one of the carnival workers was not appropriately dressed.
- Car/Bike Show—No report
- Lil Miss/Mister and Cutest Baby—Bev Miller stated it was successful. There were no expenses.
- Queen Pageant—No report
- Entertainment—No report
- Church Service—Rod Miller stated it went well.
- Hornet Hustle—No report
- Parade—Pat McIlrath stated there were 75 entries. It was one of the larger parades we have had.

- Fireworks—Pat McIlrath report fireworks went well.
- Parking—No report
- Hula Hoop/Jump Rope/Cake Walk—Stacie Ewing stated it went well. Attendance was a little light.
- Porta Pots/Hand Washing Station—Need maybe more next year.

Other Comments:

- Need to have someone to be in charge to check the toilets.
- Are more picnic tables needed?
- Put a small dumpster in the middle of the food court and inform the food vendors they need to use the roll-off for their disposal.
- Make sure we have enough lids for the cardboard trash cans.
- Temporary PA system
- Have a dance for the teens
- Coupon books—Mandy Murray stated there have been 62 sold to date.
- Bev Miller suggested possibly having a holiday carry-in for the November and forgoing the December meeting.

There being no further business to come before the group, the meeting was adjourned to Tuesday, October 15, 2019 at 12:00 p.m. at the Milner Community Health Care Activity Center.

Respectfully submitted,
Rod Miller, President
Pat McIlrath, Secretary
