Old Business:

- Coupon Book Update—Mandy Murray stated there are still several books still available for purchase and requested the price be dropped to $5.00. This was approved by the group.

New Business:

- Clinton County Tourism Grant—A check in the amount of $5,000.00 was received from the County for the Tourism Grant.
- Masonic Lodge—Due to the extreme high cost of using a replacement oil and the price of fish, the Lodge made the difficult decision to not have their annual fish fry during the Summer's End Festival.
- RBA Scholarship Committee—The committee met to review scholarship applications. Chase Jacoby and C.J. Geheb were chosen to be the recipients. Mandy Murray will be the presenter.
- Gary Gangwer reported Rod Miller had appeared on the cover of Indiana Farmers magazine.

Summer's End Festival:

- Advertising—no report
- Booths—Jessica Heater stated reservations are slow coming in.
- Car Show—Roger Gregory stated the flyers should be done in the next couple of weeks.
- Church Service—Fountain of Life Church will be in charge of the service.
- Lil Miss/Mister—no report
- Queen—Sarah Burkle has agreed to chair this event.
- Euchre Tournament—no report
- Entertainment—Cody Chapin stated sound equipment could be rented for $250.00 and entertainers for additional $250.00 for a total of $500.00. The location in the park is still to be determined. The entertainment permit has been applied for.
