Summer's End Festival Committees:

- Advertising—Rita Betts reported she had received 5 platinum, 3 gold, and 5 silver level sponsorships for the festival.
- Booths—Jessica Heater questioned when to have Touch-A-Fleet on Saturday. It was decided to have from 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. Helicopter rides were discussed. There were two vendors presented. One vendor was from Plymouth, IN, would bring his own fuel with a cost of $50.00 cash or $55.00 card. The second vendor was from Fishers, IN, would need to fly to Frankfort every hour to refuel, with a cost of $40.00 per ride. After discussion, Adrian Tedder made a motion to approve the Plymouth, IN vendor, seconded by Roger Gregory, and the motion passed.
- Little Miss/Mister, Cutest Baby, Queen Pageant—There is currently only one Little Miss candidate; otherwise, no other report.
- Euchre Tournament—No report
- Entertainment—No report. Roger Gregory had contact information for a performer.
- Parade—There are two entries so far.
- Fireworks—The fireworks canisters are out in the community for donations to the fireworks. There has been $16.59 collected to date from the canisters.
- Parking—The Boy Scout Troop will be assisting with parking.
- Trash Pickup—The Rossville Middle School Golf Club will be assisting with trash pickup.

There being no further business to come before the group, the meeting was adjourned to Tuesday, July 19, 2022 at 12:00 p.m. at the Rossville Town Park Pavilion. Kathy Michael has tentatively volunteered to provide the meal.

Respectfully submitted,
Rod Miller, Co-President
Pat McIlrath, Secretary
