New Business: -----

Summer's End Festival Committees:

- Advertising—Rita Betts reported there are 5 platinum, 4 gold, and 7 silver sponsorships this year. She asked about advertising sign placements.
- Booths—Jessica Heater requested turning the booths that face East St. to face the east to avoid having foot traffic on East St. This was approved. The game guy wants to start setting up on Wednesday. This was approved as long as he does not start business until Friday. Chad Colby inquired about keeping the traffic flow one way in front of the park. The group decided to keep the traffic flow the same.
- Car Show—Roger Gregory stated things were good to go. He still needs more trophy sponsors.
- Church Service—Fountain of Life Church
No report
- Little Miss/Mister—There are 4 little misses and no little mister candidates.
- Cutest Baby—There are 3 baby candidates.
- Queen Pageant—Sarah Burkle reported there are 3 candidates. She questioned if RBA wanted to sponsor a scholarship for the winner. Gangwer Insurance agreed to provide the scholarship. It was questioned what to do for the goody bags. It was suggested contacting local businesses such as a MaryKay consultant for items to place in the bags.
- Entertainment—An email was read from Cody Chapin regarding the entertainment. He has been able to schedule 4-5 local acts.
- Hornet Hustle—No report

- Parade—Pat McIlrath reported there are 4 entries so far. E & B Paving hopes to get St. Rd. 39 north of the 4 way stop milled and base coat down before the festival.
- Fireworks—Pat McIlrath reported there had been $22.12 received to date in donations for the fireworks. An email was read from Phil Ramsey regarding the price increase of shells. Gary Gangwer made a motion to increase the fireworks budget from $5000.00 to $6000.00, seconded by Staci Ewing, and the motion passed.
- Parking—There was discussion of the parking. This was tabled until Adrian Tedder was present.
- Trash Pick-up—Roger Gregory agreed to contribute $150.00. Gary Gangwer made a motion match the $150.00, seconded by Jessica Heater, and the motion passed.
- Cake Walk—Staci Ewing stated the cake walk would follow the contests on Friday evening. She will need baked goods donations.
- Porta pots/hand washing stations—Reservations have been made.

There being no further business to come before the group, the meeting was adjourned to Tuesday, August 9, 2022 at 12:00 p.m. at the Rossville Town Park Pavilion. Freddie Rodkey will be supplying his famous ribeye lunch.

Respectfully submitted,
Pat McIlrath, Secretary
