Summer's End Festival Committees:

- Advertising—Rita Betts and Mandy Murray will be handling the advertising this year. The advertising levels will remain the same.
- Booths—Jessica Heater reported she has approximately 20 vendors. She gave an update on the Bubble Party. It would cost $650.00 for 2 hours plus a $150.00 travel fee. It would be after the car show from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Pat McIlrath made a motion to have the bubble party, seconded by Rebecca Hebein, and the motion passed. Barry Weinstein, Big Bounce Company, contacted her about bringing inflatables back to the festival. The group was in favor of her moving forward with this and negotiate for possibly 20%. Jessica also had information for a magician.
- Car Show—Roger Gregory stated the flyer will soon be ready for the car show.
- Parade—There was discussion of the grand marshal for this year.
- Fireworks—The contract with Phil Ramsey and Ramsey Pyrotechnics has been signed. It will be for $5000.00. Rita Betts has paid the deposit. The fireworks containers will be going out soon.
- Parking—Adrian Tedder stated the Boy Scouts are available to park vehicles.
- Trash Pick-up—Adrian Tedder is still seeking help with pick-up.
- Porta Pots—Pat McIlrath stated the handwashing stations and porta pots have been ordered.

There being no further business to come before the group, the meeting was adjourned to Tuesday, March 21, 2023 at 12:00 p.m. at the Rossville Town Park Pavilion. Rita Betts will be providing a light meal.

Respectfully submitted,
Rod Miller, Co-President
